

Thanksgiving Hymn

*Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by your name; You are mine.*

When you walk through the waters I'll be with you,
You will never sink beneath the waves.

When the fire is burning all around you,
You will never be consumed by the flames.

When the fear of loneliness is looming,
Then remember I am at your side.

Prayer after Communion

Final Commendation

Recessional

*Walk with me, O my Lord, through the darkest night and brightest day
Be at my side, O Lord, hold my hand and guide me on my way.*

Sometimes the road seems long, my energy is spent,
Then Lord, I think of You and I am given strength.

Stones often bar my path and there are times I fall,
But you are always there to help me when I call.

Just as you calmed the wind and walked upon the sea,
Conquer, my living Lord, the storms that threaten me.

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon him!
May he rest in peace. Amen.*

REQUIEM MASS FOR

WILLIAM CASSIDY MORGAN

Thursday 25th June, 2020, 10am

19th January, 1934 — 15th June, 2020
Aged 86 years

Celebrant: Mgr. Peter Magee, P.P.

William Cassidy Morgan
Summary Biography

Lived for his family – Eileen his wife
Daughters – Sheena & Eileen Grandsons – Paul, Colin, David & Fraser.

Strong-willed, Independent, Active, Intelligent, Organized – which he would say as ‘MORGANISED’.

Making his own decision till the end.

Enjoyed fishing, love of cooking – no one could cook like him. Even when carers came to try and prompt him over last few months, often eating when they arrived to show he was in control.

Ten days before he died the carers had said his medication was missing.
But that was Dad, he was up dressed and had taken them himself on a good day!!

Final words to Eileen on Saturday 13 June were ‘All the Best’.

A man of dignity and independence - to anyone who knew him.

Sadly missed, but now where he wanted to be – with his wife Eileen!

Thank you to for excellent care from the Doctors at Brooksby/District Nurses/Consultants and the care staff from North Ayrshire Council, and latterly the staff at J South for their care and attention and allowing us to be with Dad at the end as his wish was not to die alone!

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Preparation of the Gifts

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, only light,
And where there's sadness ever joy

Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Prayer over the Offerings

Eucharistic Prayer

Communion Rite

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us,
an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

Gospel

John 14:1-6

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.

Trust in God still, and trust in me.

There are many rooms in my Father’s house;

if there were not, I should have told you.

I am going now to prepare a place for you,

and after I have gone and prepared you a place,

I shall return to take you with me;

so that where I am

you may be too.

You know the way to the place where I am going.’

Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’

Jesus said:

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

No one can come to the Father except through me.’

Homily

Prayer of the Faithful

Opening Hymn

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky,
Casting its shadows near.
And on this morning bright though it be,
I feel those shadows near me.

But you are always close to me

Following all my ways.

May I be always close to you

Following all your ways, Lord.

I watch the sunset fading away,
Lighting the clouds with sleep.
And as the evening closes its eyes,
I feel your presence near me.

For you are always . . .

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Wisdom (3:1–9)

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God,
no torment shall ever touch them.
In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die,
their going looked like a disaster,

their leaving us, like annihilation;
but they are in peace.

If they experienced punishment as men see it,
their hope was rich with immortality;
slight was their affliction,
great will their blessings be.
God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with him;
he has tested them like gold in a furnace,
and accepted them as a holocaust.

When the time comes for his visitation they will shine out;
as sparks run through the stubble, so will they.
They shall judge nations, rule over peoples,
and the Lord will be their king for ever.

They who trust in him will understand the truth,
those who are faithful will live with him in love;
for grace and mercy await those he has chosen.

Psalm-Hymn (Ps. 91)

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
Who abide in His shadow for life,
Say to the Lord, "My Refuge,
My Rock in Whom I trust."

*And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His Hand.*

The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
And famine will bring you no fear;
Under His Wings your refuge,
His faithfulness your shield.

*And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His Hand.*

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:14–5:1

We know that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn,
and put us by his side and you with us.

You see, all this is for your benefit,
so that the more grace is multiplied among people,
the more thanksgiving there will be,
to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part and instead,
though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay,
the inner man is renewed day by day.

Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them.

And so, we have no eyes for things that are visible,
but only for things that are invisible;
for visible things last only for a time,
and the invisible things are eternal.
